Dear Manoj,

On behalf of the Public sector diversity team, I wish to share my heart felt thank you for the session conducted on 27 April 2018, on Financial Freedom basics and Wealth Management.

The session was an eye opener for many from the audience. It helped break many myths around financial freedom and wealth management.

The key concepts around starting early, and using time as a lever to attain wealth were well received by the team.

The fact that this was a global audience (across India and Philippines) and yet everyone found the universal appeal of the content speaks volume of about the beauty of your simple teachings.

The team hopes to put your tips to practice and work on elevating their lives.

Thanks a ton for taking the time to share with us.

We wish you all the best for your upcoming book launches. And hope to see your elevating many more lives in the future.

Thanks & Regards,

Punam Rajeev John
